MISCELLANEOUS READING. [COMMUNICATED.

FOR A BEREAVED MOTHER, BY THE ABSENT FATHER. Hark! I hear a voice of sadness, Breathing forth a strain of woe And where yesterday was gladness Streams of anquish madly flow-'Tis a mother's heart that's bleeding,

'Tis a mother's sobs I hear, For her little child is sleeping, In the dead's lone sepulchre. Sleeping where no arm can reach him, For the light of life is fled— Dwelling with his buried brother, In the city of the dead! But he sleeps where love will linger, As a halo round his tomb, Where a mother's hand will bring hise,

Flow'rs of love to deck the gloom Love that fills a mother's bosom, Love that cannot know decay, Love, the pure celestial blossom Emblem of eternal day! Love the vital tide of woman, Bursting from her throbbing heart— Flowing from that crystal fountain, Seeks in vain its counterpart.

Tis around that grave will linger Love and hope, and mem'ry— And 'til life's sad dream is over, Faithful guardians they will be! Guardians placed there by a mother --Guardians of her earthly treasure, Angel spirit's sent from God.

Hark! another tone is breaking On my listning, ravished ear, Breaking like the light of morning O'er the dark earth everywhere. 'Tis a mother's prayer ascending Upward to the throne above, As her trembling knees are bending At the shrine of buried love. Hark! again a sound is blending With the music floating near-

'Tis an angel's voice descending To the weeping mourner there!
Tis an angel's voice of gladness,
Floating on the wing of love—
Floating o'er her heart of sadness, E'er it takes its flight above. Hark ! it is the voice of love, Floating through the lambent air-Coming through the gates above, Singing of his bright home there-

Breathing on a mother's bosom Sweets from the celestial sphere, Singing of his happy freedom, From the chains that bound him here See that mother kneeling, praying, Smiling through the tears of pain-See her heaving breast portraying, Joy returning back again. Hark! again a voice is ringing.

Sweetest music on mine ear-

'Tis a mother's lips proclaiming Happiness is found in prayer. FOWLE & CO., Alexandria, Va., MPORTERS OF GUANO, PLASTER, SALT, SUGARS, MOLASSES, &c., &c.
